THE BUSINESS OR ENTITY LISTED BELOW HAS PROPERTY THAT MAY BELONG TO YOU

This letter is to inform you that the business or entity listed below may have property belonging to you and their attempts to contact you have been unsuccessful. The property may be in the form of cash from bank accounts, wages, refunds, life insurance proceeds, shares, savings bonds, or safe deposit box contents. California law requires the business or entity send the property to the California State Controller's Office (SCO) if contact with you is not reestablished. You must contact the business or entity listed below, before MM/DD/YYYY, to prevent the transfer of your property to the SCO.

Business or Entity:

Contact Name:
Address:
City, State, Zip:
Phone Number:
E-mail Address:

Property Type:

Cash:
Shares:

Property Owner:

Additional Owners:
Reported Address:

If you do not contact the business or entity prior to the deadline, MM/DD/YYYY, the property will be sent to the SCO and held in perpetuity. There is no deadline to file a claim for the property with the SCO.

Your property currently resides with the business or entity listed above. The State Controller's Office does not have your property.

If the property consists of shares and is sent to the SCO, California law requires a sale of the shares after a specified time. You or your heirs will be entitled to the net proceeds of the sale.

The Business or Entity may sometimes change contact information after this notice is sent. The most current contact information can be found at sco.ca.gov/upd_consumerinfo.html under "Updated | Business Contact Information list".
