

Andrew C. Sisk, CPA

Auditor-Controller

County of Placer

Andrew C. Sisk is the Auditor-Controller for the County of Placer and has been serving in this capacity since May 2012. Prior to that, he was the Placer County Assistant Auditor-Controller for over nine years. Before joining the County of Placer, Andrew worked at Macias, Gini & O'Connell, CPAs, for over eight years and has more than 36 years of accounting and auditing experience.

Andrew's audit experience includes managing, planning, performing operational, financial, and compliance audits for governmental and nonprofit organizations. He has conducted many of those audits in accordance with GAAS, "Red Book", "Yellow Book", and OMB Circular A-133 standards and guidelines. He has also been responsible for preparing financial statements and reports for the federal and state government and numerous counties, special districts and nonprofit organizations. Andrew has also been active in teaching classes on many accounting and auditing subjects, including Introduction to Governmental Accounting, Budgeting and Reporting, Intermediate Governmental Accounting, Understanding and Preparing for the Annual Single Audit, the New Fund Balance, Enhancing Internal Control through Risk Assessment, and Accounting and Auditing of Special Districts.

Andrew currently serves as the Chair of the Local Government Advisory Committee on Financial Reporting and is an active member of the Executive and Legislative Committees for the California State Association of County Auditors.

Andrew has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from California State University, Sacramento, has been a licensed CPA for 30 years, and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.