

Anthony Pok

Cost Plans Analyst

County Cost Plans Unit

Local Government Programs and Services Division

California State Controller's Office

Anthony Pok has been in public service with California State for five years. Mr. Pok began his career as an Accountant Trainee at the Employment Development Department and was later promoted to be a Cost Plans Analyst within the California State Controller's Office. He is responsible for reviewing 15 of the 58 County's Countywide Cost Allocation Plans from California Counties to ensure compliance with the Office of Management and Budget Guidance.

Mr. Pok has completed both the undergraduate and graduate programs at California State University of Sacramento, graduating with a Master of Science in Accountancy in 2023. He is inspired daily by his wife and one-year old daughter and enjoys traveling abroad.