

Kristin Shelton

Chief, Research and Analysis Unit
California Department of Finance

Kristin Shelton has worked for the California Department of Finance for more than 22 years and has served as a Program Budget Manager for areas including Forecasting, Labor, Transportation, Health, and Human Services. Ms. Shelton is currently the Chief of the Research and Analysis Unit and is responsible for tracking federal COVID-19 funding allocated to California, including Coronavirus Relief Funds. As Chief of the unit, she serves in a coordinating roll and primary point of contact for programs receiving federal COVID-19 funds.