Rodney Craig Goodman Jr., CPA

Rodney Craig Goodman Jr. has over 25 years of experience as a Certified Public Accountant practicing primarily in state and local government accounting and over 10 years of experience as a Lawyer practicing primarily in estate planning.

Craig worked seven and a half years at the California State Controller's Office (SCO) in the Division of Accounting and Reporting. Craig dealt with local government accounting policies and procedures, the California State legislative process, staffing various commissions and committees, and reviewing state reporting for counties, cities, courts, special districts, and school districts. In addition, Craig coordinated several annual conferences between the California State Controller and the State Association of County Auditors.

Craig was privileged to serve as the Assistant County Auditor-Controller in beautiful Napa County for four and a half years. During his tenure in Napa County, the County was awarded its first "Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting" from the Government Finance Officers' Association. He was instrumental in forming and maintaining high quality working relationships both within the Auditor-Controller's Office and with external departments, agencies, and citizens.

Craig's firm, Rodney Craig Goodman Jr., CPA, has worked the last 17 years as a government consultant to 14 different California counties. During the last 17 years, he has assisted counties with their year-end closing process, financial reporting requirements, budget preparations, provided various trainings, and aided two counties to receive their first ever "Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting" from the Government Finance Officers' Association.

Craig graduated in 1993, with honors, from CSU Sacramento with a B.S. in Business Administration with a concentration in accounting and graduated in 2012, Salutatorian of his class, from Lincoln Law School in Sacramento with a Juris Doctorate of Law.
