

Sandra Navarro

Events and Program Analyst

Unclaimed Property Division

California State Controller's Office

Sandra Navarro is a lead analyst in the Outreach and Compliance Unit of the Unclaimed Property Division of the State Controller's Office (SCO). She earned her degree in Business Law from California State University, Northridge, and joined SCO in 2022 as a Research and Data Analyst. In that role, Sandra contributed to advancing data-driven processes and enhancing reporting accuracy.

Currently, Sandra leads efforts to ensure businesses have access to tools and resources that support outreach and compliance with the Voluntary Compliance Program (VCP). She represents SCO at conferences, workshops, and webinars, where she delivers presentations on VCP, unclaimed property law, and mandated reporting requirements. In her free time, she enjoys being outdoors and visiting new natural environments.
