

Stacy D. Nakintu

Senior Analyst

Research and Data Analytics

National Association of Counties

Stacy is a Senior Analyst for Research and Data Analytics within the Research, Policy and Governance division at the National Association of County Auditors (NACo). Her responsibilities include leading various research initiatives from their inception through to data collection, analysis and the composition of reports. She plays a pivotal role as the primary analyst for the County Explorer briefs, where she adeptly translates vital CE data points for NACo's audience. Before assuming her current role, Stacy gained valuable experience as a research intern at NACo.

Stacy completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Maryland, College Park, where she achieved a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. She also holds a Master of Science in Applied Economics from George Washington University.
